As usual this means that some of the sources are English

Underhand hornpipe or Redesdale hornpipe

James Hill

Underhand was a racehorse who won the Northumberland Plate three times running in the 1850s

Savage hornpipe

[John Clare MS]

Possibly named after poet Richard Savage (c1697-1743)

Bristol hornpipe or Slayley Bridge hornpipe or Whitehaven hornpipe

[Browne MS c1850]

