Henry Clay Work (1832–1884) was a Connecticut composer

Marching through Georgia

Henry Clay Work 1865

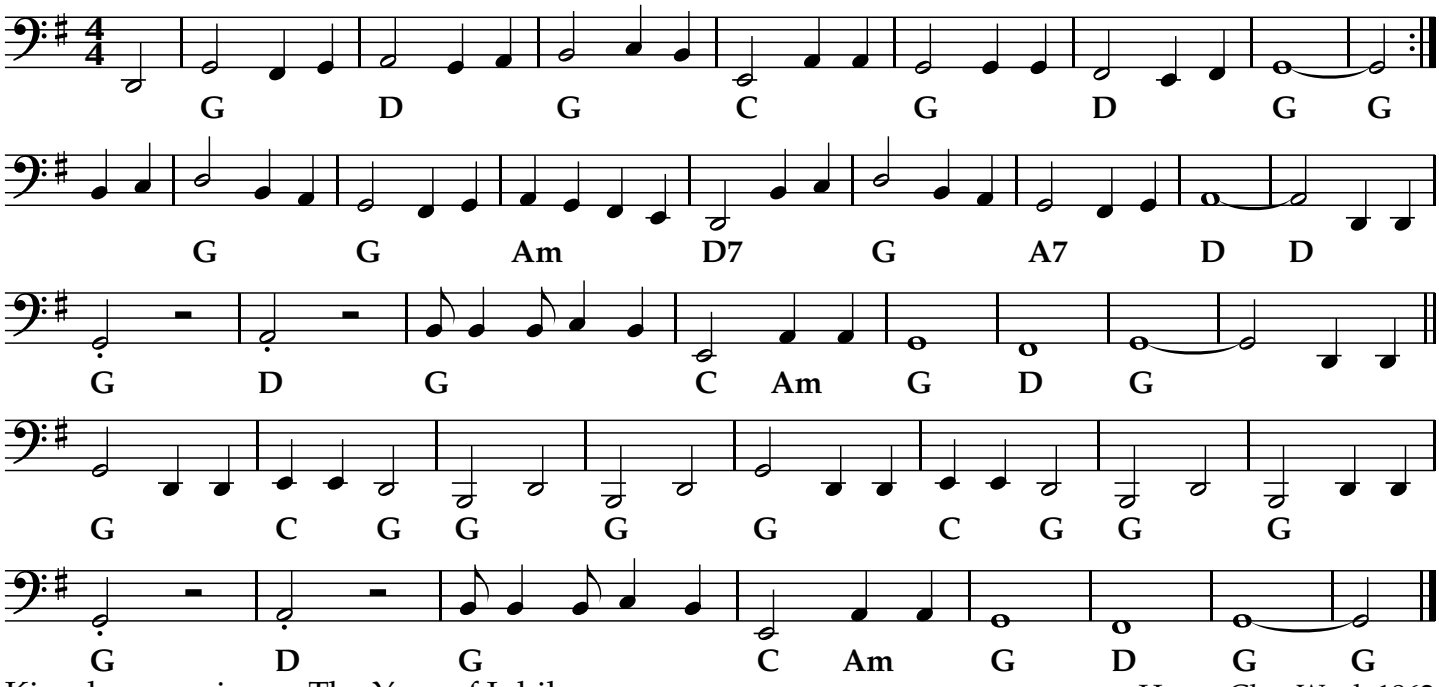

Written to commemorate General Sherman's march from Atlanta to Savannah in 1864. Sherman later said "If I had thought when I made that march that it would have inspired any one to compose the piece, I would have marched around the state."

My grandfather's clock

Henry Clay Work 1876

This song is believed to be the origin of the term "grandfather clock".

Kingdom coming or The Year of Jubilo

Henry Clay Work 1862

